LATTERS' HITS SCATTERED

Score in Saturday Afternoon's Game was 4 to 2, and the Game Gave Plenty of Excitement to the Spectators Throughout.

The Italian Athletic club scored its third victory of the season over the Fifth Infantry team from Plattsburg, N. Y., at the campus Saturday afternoon, the score standing 4 to 2. The game was chiefly conspicuous by the absence of heavy hitting, although neither Pietro nor Osborne, the opposing pitchers, was able to get away with many strikeouts. The former succeeded in fooling three of the soldier-swatsmen, while Osborne fanned two. The lingers, however, were kept well scattered on both sides. A two-bagger by Calagni, which sailed easily over the left field fence in the second inning and another double into the left field trees by Robinson in the ninth were the longest hits of the game.

Among the features were a difficult one-hand stab by Giacomuzzi in the third which caught Myers at first, Rossini's gathering in of a hard fly in the seventh, a whirlwind stop by Davidi in the ninth inning and Hanbury's put out in the seventh. Both teams showed up in fine fielding form and always had plenty of opportunities to show their speed.

The locals got away with a good start in the opening round by pushing one tally across the rubber. Calagni worked the lengthy Plattsburg twirler for a pass and was sacrificed to second by Girardo, who laid down a pretty hunt along the third base line. Comolli drove a roller to Myers, who fielded it perfectly to first, although Calagni reached third on the play. Rossini then drove a safe one into left scoring Calagni. Davidi retired the side by pushing an easy one to Robinson at first.

Tallies came in a pair the very next time the Italians took their turn at the plate. After Giacomuzzi had lifted a fly to Myers at short, Calagni dumped the pill over into the garden back of right field fence. Tonazzi followed with a safe one through short, advancing Calagni to third. Pietro followed by drawing a pass and when the pitching infantryman tried to catch him stealing second, Calagni started out for home and reached his destination with time to spare. Pietro evidently looked like a shining mark to the soldiers, for at the next turn, Shaw tried to catch him off second and in the confusion Tonazzi came home for the third run. Calagni took the count for the second man down by laying down an easy roller to Osborne. Girardo retired the side by hitting a fly to McKillop.

The fourth and last run came in the eighth. Calagni led the list and could do no better than a fly to a big one which found a ready reception in Centerfield (Connell's) glove. Girardo, however, got a life at first on Robinson's muff and went to third when Comolli singled into center. Rossini was out on an infield fly and for the moment it looked dubious for further scoring. Davidi relieved the suspension by shoving a swift grounder through Robinson, and Girardo came to the pan for the tally. Giacomuzzi finished the inning when he was hit by a batted fair ball.

Scoring for the infantrymen happened only in one delirious inning, the fourth. Myers made a weak start by dumping a roller into Calagni's territory, which the fast Laconia shortstop gathered in and fielded with ease. McKillop dumped a Texas leaguer into center, but was caught at second by the ever watchful Pietro, who rose rolled him an easy grounder. Rose, who got a life on the fielder's choice, remained stationary until Hanbury slammed a grounder to Calagni, who overshot the mark in fielding it to first. Both men cantered home when Robinson slapped a liner over into right field. Osborne was safe at first on Davidi's miscue, but Doyle retired the side by striking out.

Something like a spurt happened in the ninth which might have evened matters up but for the timely work of Tonazzi. After Rose and Hanbury had taken the count on easy infield grounders, Robinson hammered the ball into the grove near left field. Osborne followed by dropping the leather over into center for a safe one and Robinson set out for home. Tonazzi crushed his aspirations, however, by gathering in the single and making a brilliant throw home to Comolli, who choked the baserunner two feet from the plate.

"FAVOR ENGLAND," CANADA'S POLICY

Premier Laurier Tells British Statesmen Reciprocity Need Not Alarm.

London, June 19.—At a luncheon of the Constitutional club, presided over by A. J. Balfour Saturday, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, told the big gathering of British statesmen and overseas premiers that the reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada need cause no alarm to any one.

Canada, he said, wished to trade with the mother country in preference to any other land, but that did not mean that it should treat with her alone. Whatever privileges were granted to other countries would be given equally to England.

"In Canada," he added, "the policy of British preference has been hoisted to the top of the mast, and there it will stay whatever Great Britain does or does not do."

"SOCCER" GAME A WHIRLWIND

Bonaccord Team Swept South
Enders Off Their Feet

FINAL SCORE BEING 8 TO 0

First Half of Game Was As Close As
One Could Wish for, but the "Bons"
Simply Ran Away With Game
In the Last Period.

The Bonaccord association football team won a decisive victory over the South End team at the Rangers' field Saturday afternoon by the score of 8 to 0. In the first game of the season between these two teams the South Enders were the victors, 4 to 1, but in Saturday's game they proved to be no match for the Bonaccords especially in the last half of the game, when they were played off their feet, the Bonaccords scoring five goals in the last fifteen minutes of the game.

Two 45-minute periods were played and the first half was as close and fast a battle as could be asked for. Though the half ended 1 to 0 in favor of the Bonaccords, the goal was presented to them on a miskick by Naughton of the South End team. The Bonaccords had rushed the ball up close to the front of the South Enders' goal, and Naughton, in attempting to boot the ball out of danger ground, accidentally kicked it directly through his own team's goal, and the score had to count for their opponents.

In the last half, the Bonaccords showed championship form of playing from the start and soon had their opponents hopelessly outclassed. After fifteen minutes of skirmishing, the Bonaccords by systematic team work rushed the ball to their opponents' goal and a well-directed kick by Mitchell sent the oval between the posts. A few minutes later Walker scored another goal and after this the South Enders went down and out.

The rushes and passes of the Bonaccords went on almost at will and a goal was scored every few minutes until the whistle stopped the slaughter. In the last fifteen minutes of the game Mitchell tallied another goal, Ewing scored two, Walker one and Anderson one. The playing of Walker, Mitchell and Ewing was the feature of the game.

The line-up was as follows:

Bonaccords goal Craigmyle
South End back Naughton
Forbes back Reid
Freeland halfback Henry
Anderson halfback Preston
Thompson halfback Davidson
Wilson halfback J. Milne
Miller forward Melville
Milne forward Grigg
Walker forward Duncan
Ewing forward
Mitchell forward

The Dance.

At 9 p. m. the music's brisk,
While the drums go rattle-tat-tat,
While the orchestra peals with a pace
that reels,
And you've flopped dull care to the mat.

It's then that you drink of the wine
of youth,
And thoughts and great thoughts occur,
Life is love and blue eyes, and the whole world a prize,
To be laid at the feet of her.

At 3 a. m., when the music writhes,
While the drums drone boom-pause-boom,
When your arm goes lame, though you
did dead game,
The ghosts of the morrow loom.

Then your thoughts slip quickly from heaven to earth,
Hope drops like the rose on her
head;
You would give life and love and salvation above,
To be laid at the foot of your bed!

LAFOLLETTE IS GETTING READY

PROGRESSIVES ARE DIVIDED

Possibility That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Will Support the Ambitions of the Senator from Wisconsin.

Washington, June 19.—The main political news is the semi-official announcement Saturday, through a source which Senator LaFollette often uses, that he will seek the Republican nomination for president in 1912. It is hard to conceive why the senator should continue in that fatuous pursuit, but he seems to be unable to control his ambition.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE.

and the statement made Saturday is that the senator expects to make his announcement within a month. It is said that the statement is made by authority and that many could be better. And it is declared that the senator will not make a perfunctory fight, but will carry the canvass into every state of the Union and do his utmost to defeat the renomination of President Taft and capture the nomination for himself.

A significant statement accompanying it is that it will be found that certain men now known as leading progressives, and who are now being set down as Taft supporters, will be for LaFollette. It is interpreted that the progressives alluded to are Gifford Pinchot and James R. Garfield, and possibly Theodore Roosevelt himself. He has said more in praise of LaFollette than he has at any time of President Taft since Mr. Taft has been chief magistrate of the nation.

It is further declared that LaFollette intends taking a leading part in the reciprocity debate, and that he will take a leading role in the whole Senate tariff discussion; that he will offer a bill for a reduction on the tariff schedules on steel, sugar, cotton and wool, and that he will work for the broadening out of the reciprocity agreement, and that, although he expects to be beaten, he will go before the country and contest with the president, the nomination on these issues.

It would appear from these statements that the senator will especially address himself for support in such states as Oregon, Nebraska, New Jersey, Wisconsin and North Dakota, where there have been passed presidential preference laws for the primaries, and where he expects to show such a strong anti-Taft sentiment as serious to check the renomination of the president and bring about his own.

Meantime it is well understood that the senator will not have behind him the united support of the progressives. Such men as Senators Cummins, Borah, Brown, Dixon and Crawford have refused to sign the letter which LaFollette put before them for consideration appealing to him to run.

N. Y. BOARD ADOPTS TUBE PLAN.

Construction of $275,000,000 Subways to Be Done by City if Two Roads Balk.

New York, June 19.—The city board of estimate Saturday, Mayor Gaynor presiding, unanimously adopted the committee report recently laid before it calling for the construction of subways to cost $275,000,000.

The report submits the city's ultimatum to the Interborough company and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company. Each is allotted a route along which it may build under the conditions specified by the city. If the conditions are not acceptable to one company they will be laid before its competitor. If both companies balk, the city will be its own builder.

THIRD FALLS INTO A TREE

Opening of the Flights at Vincennes was Marked by More Than the Usual
Number of Fatalities—Number of Accidents.

Paris, June 19.—Fifty aeroplanists took wing early yesterday morning from the aviation field at Vincennes on the first stage of the European circuit race, which calls for a flight to London and return, with various stops going and returning. Two of the aviators met tragic deaths almost immediately after the start and another was killed shortly afterwards. In addition, at least one more was gravely injured. Two of the dead were burned to death by blazing benzine.

The dead:
Captain Princeteau, whose motor exploded in midair, showering him with benzine and causing his death before he had reached the earth.

M. Lendron, killed in precisely the same manner near Chateau-Thierry.

M. Lamartin, who dashed against a tree, the motor of his aeroplane crushing his skull.

The injured are:

M. Gaudet, a former lieutenant in the army, who entered in the civilian race under the name "Dalgier." He was found lying senseless near his machine in a wheat field four miles from Villars-Coterets. His injuries are grave.

M. Rille. His aeroplane struck the earth within a mile of the start and was wrecked. Rille was injured, but not seriously.

Three other birdmen fell, M. Lorian, near Charleville, Oscar Morison close to Gogny and M. Morin at Chevroux, within 22 miles of Liege, which is the end of the first stage of the race. None was badly hurt.

Of the 50 aviators who started the race, 38 were civilians and 12 were officers assigned to the contest for military duty. Hung up for the competitors are prizes amounting to $84,000.

At Vincennes a crowd variously estimated at from 500,000 to 1,000,000, massed around the military exercise field to witness the start of the race. The roads were choked with vehicles and reserves of troops had to be summoned to deal with the refractory crowds. Six thousand soldiers and four thousand police, most of them mounted, strove to keep the aviation field clear.

Ten of the competitors although they started officially, never got beyond the limits of the maneuvering field. Either on account of the gusty wind or because their machines developed eccentricities they all came down and gave up their chances for winning the contest.

PANAMA BOND ISSUE

OVER-SUBSCRIBED

Price of 102 1/2 Indicates Credit of the United States is Highest in the World.

Washington, June 19.—The government's new 3 per cent. $50,000,000 Panama loan is a success. More than 3,000 bids opened Saturday oversubscribed it at least three times, and probably more.

Before the opening of bids had been in progress half an hour treasury officials said that the loan would be entirely taken by comparatively small investors at a price higher than 102 1/2.

The prices bid for the new bonds are taken to indicate that the national credit of the United States is the highest in the world. Securities of England, France and Germany are selling at discount, and many financiers believed that the new Panama loan would bring little above par. Not since the civil war has this government issued bonds which had not an artificial value because of the national bank circulation privilege attached to them. The price of these new securities, available for investment only, is taken to reflect the credit of the nation.

College Oarsmen in Hudson River Had Exciting Experience.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 17.—A driving storm, springing up with scarcely a moment's warning, swept over the Hudson last evening while three of the crews in training were still out on the river. The Columbia varsity eight caught the full force of the blast and their shell narrowly escaped swamping.

It was only by a hard and plucky fight that the crew averted disaster. Luckily for the Columbians, the blow lasted only a few minutes and they were able to work back to the barge when it was over.

Pennsylvania and Wisconsin were out in the beginning of the squall but they were nearing their quarters when the storm broke and were able to make a quick turn for cover.

Viterbo, June 19.—Saturday's sitting at Viterbo, Italy, of the Camorra trial was occupied with testimony of unimportant witnesses. Among them was a servant of Genaro Cuocollo, the Camorra boss whose murder the 36 members of the society are now being tried. He said that his employer wore eye-glasses and the ring which was found, it is alleged, by the carabinieri, in a mattress in the home of a woman friend of Giuseppe Salvi, another member of the Camorra.
